

FILMS OF OUR GLOBAL VILLAGE

There will be a series of films offered at the King Campus in Garriock Hall Pod C this fall. In the workshops, participants will view and discuss cultural behaviours of peoples in other countries through the powerful and instructive medium of narrative film;

The dates and films for the fall are:

September 20: Long Life, Happiness and Prosperity

The story of Kin (Sandra Oh), a young divorced mother raising her 12 year old daughter, Mindy. When Mindy sets her sights on finding her mother a new boyfriend by using ancient Chinese magic, the results are unexpected, hysterically funny and heartwarming. (Canada, '03)

October 18: Lovers of the Arctic Circle

The film charts the destinies of Ana and Otto, childhood friends whose fates intersect over the years, leading to a stunning conclusion in which destiny and romance collide. (Spain, '06)

November 15: Hour of the Star

Centered on a naïve immigrant woman from the impoverished north of Brazil, the film tracks her tragicomic ordeals during her first days in the megalopolis of Sal Paulo. Best Actress award for Marcelia Cartaxo at the Berlin Film Festival. (Brazil, '86)

All of the workshops will be led by Arne Bowers who has a broad background in teaching, traveling and the study of media ecology with Marshall McLuhan and Neil Postman. The workshops are free and will run from 7 – 9:30 p.m.

Please RSVP to: Judi at 905-833-3333 ext. 5005